Location

Cirencester is known as the “Capital of the Cotswolds” and is the largest town in the Cotswold District. The town is located roughly mid-way between Swindon, 15 miles to the south east, Cheltenham and Gloucester 18 miles to the north west via the A419 and A417 respectively.

The subject property is situated within the town centre on Dollar Street approximately 200m north of the Market Place. The location is one of mixed uses with some retail, some offices and some residential.

Description

The property comprises two Grade II Listed terraced former town houses which have been converted to offices together with a rear annexe.

They are of Cotswold stone construction with an ashlar front elevation and a combination of slate covered, tiled and lead covered flat roofs. There are a mixture of sash, casement and mullion windows, all of which are single glazed.

The accommodation comprises a range of cellular offices and meeting rooms on all three floors together with a two storey ‘bakehouse’ at the rear. Basement storage is provided.

There are approximately 10 allocated parking spaces in the rear car park which is accessed from Dugdale Road. There is direct access to the rear of the building from the car park.
