

RESIDENTIAL CONSENT HAS BEEN OBTAINED

20 Suffolk Parade, Cheltenham

Prominent self-contained building in The Suffolks, Cheltenham, with residential consent granted and scope for a variety of uses, subject to planning.

Location

The Regency Spa town of Cheltenham, which supports a district population of approximately 115,000, is one of Gloucestershire's principal commercial and administrative centres with major occupiers including Zurich, Capita, GCHQ, GE Aviation, Super Dry Group and Spirax Sarco.

The town benefits from good local and regional road communications via the M5 (Junctions 10 and 11). In addition, the A417/A419 northeast link provides access to the M4 (Junction 15) at Swindon.

The town is approximately 9 miles (14.5 km) east of Gloucester, 25 miles (40 km) south of Worcester, 42 miles (67.5 km) northeast of Bristol and 100 miles (161 km) northwest of London.

The property is situated in a prominent position on Suffolk Parade, at the heart of The Suffolks area of Cheltenham — one of the town's most sought-after and characterful districts, comprising a mix of specialist retailers, restaurants, bars and residential properties.

Description

The property is a two-storey building that previously formed part of The Daffodil, an Art Deco building dating from 1922.

It was previously used as a deli and has accommodation over two floors; the ground floor has an attractive tiled floor, predominantly white metro tiled walls with a decorative green banding course, beneath a high ceiling with moulded cornice, corbelled beams and original suspended rails and hooks. The space is fitted with substantial marble and terrazzo counters and back-counter runs.

There is an enclosed yard to the rear of the property with a staircase providing access to the basement which has been used for preparation and storage. There is a separate brick building at the rear with WC facilities and a staircase leading to a roof terrace.

The property has an EPC Rating of D-84.
